

50 AI Video Prompts & Guide

Every prompt here is written as a pair — a still to generate first, then the one thing that moves. That order is the whole method.

FUSE ATELIER · AI VIDEOS & UGC

How to use this

Never generate a video from words alone. You generate a still image first — the exact opening frame, with the product in it, framed the way you want. Then you tell the model what moves. Get the still right and the video almost always follows; skip it and you are gambling with every generation.

That is why every prompt below comes in two parts:

- Start frame — paste into an image model. This is a photograph description. No motion words.
- Motion — paste into a video model along with that frame. One action. Nothing else.

The four steps

- 1. Start frame. Generate the still. Regenerate until the framing and the product are right — it is far cheaper to fix here than after.
- 2. Motion prompt. Attach the frame, paste the motion line, set 5–8 seconds.
- 3. Generate. Short beats long. Always.
- 4. Edit in CapCut. Captions, a trending sound, one small zoom, cut on the beat.

The trick that matters most: take the LAST frame of a clip and use it as the START frame of the next one. The two clips join with no visible cut — that is how you get past the length limit.

Swapping in your own product

Every prompt is written generically on purpose. Replace the object with yours and keep everything else — the framing, the light direction, the setting, the imperfection. Those are the parts doing the work.

Keep the mess. Real phone footage has an unmade bed, clutter on the counter, slightly wrong framing. Clean studio perfection is the fastest way to look AI-made.

The three mistakes

- Too much movement. One action per clip. A person who lifts and turns and laughs will melt.
- Hands and text. AI still struggles with both. Frame hands simply, and let CapCut add every word.
- Too long. 5–8 seconds. Join clips instead.

What to avoid in every prompt

Add these when a generation comes back looking synthetic: no lens flare, no bloom or hazy glow, no over-smoothed plastic skin, no perfectly centred symmetry, no floating product, no extra text or captions, no watermark.

UGC Testimonial — a person talking to camera

01 • The Honest Review

START FRAME

A young woman sitting on the edge of a bed in a small sunlit bedroom, holding a skincare jar at chest height, soft window light from camera-left, unmade sheets and a cluttered nightstand behind her, shot on a phone front camera, slightly imperfect framing

MOTION

She lifts the jar toward the camera and tilts it so the label catches the light, still talking

02 · The Morning Routine

START FRAME

A woman in a towel and a robe standing at a bathroom mirror, product on the sink edge, warm overhead light, real toothbrushes and clutter on the counter, phone propped against the mirror

MOTION

She picks the product up off the sink and unscrews the lid

03 · The Kitchen Counter

START FRAME

A man in a plain t-shirt leaning on a kitchen counter, a supplement tub in front of him, morning light through a window behind, real kitchen mess in the background

MOTION

He taps two fingers on the lid twice while speaking, then slides it forward

04 · The Car Seat

START FRAME

A woman in the driver's seat of a parked car, seatbelt on, holding a small bottle up beside her face, daylight through the windscreen, phone mounted on the dash

MOTION

She shakes the bottle once and raises an eyebrow

05 · The Desk Confession

START FRAME

A young man at a desk with a laptop half-closed, product standing beside the keyboard, a warm lamp to one side, a dark room behind

MOTION

He leans in toward the camera and picks the product up

06 · The Sofa Chat

START FRAME

A woman cross-legged on a sofa in the evening, a lamp behind her, holding a sachet between two fingers, TV glow on one side of her face

MOTION

She tears the top of the sachet open and looks at the camera

07 · The Doorway

START FRAME

A woman standing in a doorway with a bag over her shoulder, product held low in one hand, hallway light behind her

MOTION

She raises the product into frame as if remembering something

08 · The Two-Week Update

START FRAME

A man in a bathroom, close mid-shot, holding the product at shoulder height, bright even light, tiled wall behind

MOTION

He turns his face slightly to show one cheek to the camera

09 • The Skeptic

START FRAME

A woman with her arms folded, product on a table in front of her, plain wall behind, flat daylight

MOTION

She unfolds her arms and picks the product up off the table

10 • The Recommendation

START FRAME

A woman on a balcony in the late afternoon, city rooftops soft behind her, product held near her collarbone

MOTION

She turns the product so the front label faces the camera

Product Hero — no person in frame

11 • The Slow Rotate

A matte cosmetic jar standing on a raw concrete slab, single soft key light from the upper left, deep shadow to the right, dark neutral background

MOTION

The jar rotates slowly a quarter turn to the right, the light travelling across the label

12 • The Pour

START FRAME

A glass bottle beside an empty tumbler on a dark wooden surface, warm side light, condensation on the glass

MOTION

Liquid pours from the bottle into the tumbler in one continuous stream

13 • The Splash Column

START FRAME

A sealed can standing upright in the centre of frame, clean gradient-free backdrop, hard rim light on both edges

MOTION

A column of liquid rises around the can and falls away

14 • The Unbox

START FRAME

A closed rigid box on a plain surface, top-down framing, soft even light, no hands visible

MOTION

The lid lifts straight up and away, revealing the product inside

15 • The Ingredient Drop

START FRAME

A cream jar open on a stone surface with raw ingredients scattered around it, natural window light

MOTION

A single drop falls into the cream and the surface ripples once

16 • The Fabric Reveal

START FRAME

A product half-covered by a sheet of soft fabric, low warm light, deep shadows

MOTION

The fabric slides off the product to the left and settles

17 • The Shelf Line-Up

START FRAME

Three identical bottles in different colourways standing in a row, flat frontal light, seamless backdrop

MOTION

The camera pushes slowly in toward the centre bottle

18 • The Floating Assembly

START FRAME

The parts of a product suspended in mid-air in exploded view, clean backdrop, soft studio light

MOTION

The parts draw together and assemble into the finished product

19 • The Heat Rise

START FRAME

A hot drink cup on a wooden table, low warm side light, dark background

MOTION

Steam rises and drifts to the right, the surface of the drink trembling

20 • The Macro Texture

START FRAME

Extreme close-up on the surface texture of a product, raking light across it revealing every grain

MOTION

The camera drifts slowly right across the surface

Food & Drink

21 • The Cheese Pull

START FRAME

A burger cut in half on a wooden board, warm overhead light, crumbs and sauce on the board

MOTION

The two halves pull apart slowly and cheese stretches between them

22 • The Sizzle

START FRAME

Meat on a hot grill, embers glowing beneath, dark surroundings, hard orange light from below

MOTION

Fat drips and flares, smoke curling upward across frame

23 • The Cold Pour

START FRAME

A bottle of soft drink beside a glass of ice, bright daylight, sweating glass

MOTION

The drink pours over the ice and foam rises to the rim

24 • The First Bite

START FRAME

A hand holding a pastry close to the camera, café blurred behind, warm afternoon light

MOTION

The pastry is bitten and flakes fall away

25 • The Plate Down

START FRAME

An empty wooden table from above, warm kitchen light

MOTION

A plated dish is set down into frame and the hands withdraw

26 • The Drizzle

START FRAME

A stack of pancakes on a plate, side light, dark background

MOTION

Syrup drizzles from above and runs down the stack

Beauty & Skincare

27 • The Swatch

START FRAME

The back of a hand against a plain background, soft even light, product beside it

MOTION

A stripe of cream is applied to the skin and blended in one motion

28 • The Dropper

START FRAME

A serum dropper held above an open palm, soft window light, neutral backdrop

MOTION

Three drops fall into the palm one after another

29 • The Mirror Apply

START FRAME

A woman's reflection in a bathroom mirror, warm light, real bathroom clutter

MOTION

She applies the product to one cheek with two fingers

30 • The Texture Scoop

START FRAME

Close on an open jar of thick cream, raking light showing the surface

MOTION

A spatula scoops through the cream leaving a clean ridge

31 • The Before Side

START FRAME

A face lit evenly from the front, plain background, neutral expression

MOTION

The head turns slowly to show the other side of the face

32 • The Lid Twist

START FRAME

A cosmetic bottle held in one hand against a soft backdrop

MOTION

The other hand twists the cap off and lifts it away

Fashion & Accessories

33 • The Bag Turn

START FRAME

A structured handbag on a plinth, single hard key light, deep shadow behind

MOTION

The bag rotates slowly to show its side profile

34 • The Walk-In

START FRAME

A model standing still in a plain corridor, hard overhead light, strong shadow

MOTION

She takes two steps toward the camera and stops

35 • The Fabric Move

START FRAME

Close on the hem of a garment, side light showing the weave

MOTION

The fabric lifts and falls in a slow ripple

36 • The Watch Wrist

START FRAME

A wrist wearing a watch resting on a dark surface, hard rim light on the case

MOTION

The wrist turns to bring the face toward the camera

37 • The Shoe Drop

START FRAME

A single trainer suspended above a concrete floor, hard light, dust in the air

MOTION

The shoe falls and lands, dust puffing outward

Hooks — the first 3 seconds

38 • The Interrupt

START FRAME

A woman mid-sentence very close to the camera, slightly out of frame, phone-shot look

MOTION

She pulls back from the camera into a normal mid-shot

39 • The Pointed Finger

START FRAME

A person pointing directly at the camera, plain background, flat light

MOTION

The pointing hand drops and they hold up the product instead

40 • The Empty Frame

START FRAME

A plain surface with nothing on it, soft light

MOTION

The product is placed into the centre of frame and the hand withdraws

41 • The Wrong Way

START FRAME

A product held upside down close to camera, casual room behind

MOTION

The product is turned the right way up

42 • The Fast Zoom

START FRAME

A wide shot of a person holding a product at arm's length

MOTION

The camera pushes in fast to a tight shot of the product

43 • The Reveal Behind

START FRAME

A person standing with hands behind their back, plain wall

MOTION

They bring the product forward from behind their back

44 • The Countdown

START FRAME

A hand holding up three fingers close to camera, soft light

MOTION

The fingers drop one by one to a closed fist

End Cards & CTA

45 • The Product Rest

START FRAME

The product standing centre frame on a clean surface, even light, empty space above it

MOTION

The camera holds completely still, only a faint highlight shifting

46 • The Hand Off

START FRAME

A product held out toward the camera by one hand, plain background

MOTION

The hand pushes the product toward the lens and holds

47 • The Set Down

START FRAME

A hand lowering the product onto a surface, warm light

MOTION

The product is set down and the hand leaves frame

48 • The Line Up

START FRAME

Three product variants standing in a row, flat frontal light, generous empty space beneath

MOTION

The camera holds still as the light slowly brightens

49 • The Turn To Camera

START FRAME

A person mid-shot looking off to one side, soft light

MOTION

They turn to face the camera and hold the look

50 • The Logo Space

START FRAME

The product placed low in frame with a large clean empty area above it, soft even light

MOTION

The camera holds still, the product completely static
